NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That every person excepting Justices of the Peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of such election shall be elegible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1819, further provides as follows, viz:

"That the Inspector and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 8 o'clock in the morning of the FIRST TUESDAY OF NOVEMBER, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as an Inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected a Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy,

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said Inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white citizen of the age of twenty-one or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty-one and twenty two years who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioners, unless: First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof; or second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, and the word "age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and in either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make a like note in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election and shall also swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove within the district for the purpose of voting.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, shall block up or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice intimidation, threats, force or violence, with the design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward or district where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

Election Proclamation.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of an election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

And the election laws of the Commonwealth further provide that "The Inspectors, Judges and clerks shall, before entering on the duties of their offices, severally take and subscribe the oath or affirmation hereinafter directed, which shall be administered to them by any judge, alderman or justice of the peace, but if no such magistrate be present, one of the inspectors of the election shall administer the oath or affirmation to the other judge and inspector, and then the inspector so qualified shall administer the oath or affirmation to him.

"The inspectors, judge and clerks required by law to hold township and general elections, shall take and subscribe the several oaths and affirmations, required by the 19th, 20th and 21st sections of the act of the 2d day of July 1839, entitled "An act relating to the elections of this commonwealth," which oaths or affirmations shall be prepared and administered in the manner prescribed in the 18th aed 22d sections of said act, and in addition to the power conferred by the 18th section of said act, the judge, or either of the inspectors, shall have power to administer the oaths prescribed by said act, to any clerk of a general, special or township election.

"The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each inspector, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will duly attend to the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, as an inspector, and that I will not receive any ticket or vote from any person, other than such as I shall firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and the laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, nor will I vexatiously delay or refuse to receive any vote from any person who I shall believe to be entitled to vote as aforesaid, but that I will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty therein, to the best of my judgment and abilities, and that I am not directly, nor indirectly, interested in any bet, or wager on the result of this election.'

"The following shall be the oath or affirmation of each judge, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will as judge duly attend the ensuing election during the continuance thereof, and faithfully assist the inspectors in carrying on the same; that I will not give my consent that any vote or ticket shall be received from any person other than such as I firmly believe to be, according to the provisions of the constitution and laws of this commonwealth, entitled to vote at such election, without requiring such evidence of the right to vote as is directed by law, and that I will use my best endeavors to prevent any fraud, deceit or abuse, in carrying on the same by citizens qualified to vote, or others, and that I will make a true and perfect return of the said election, and will in all things truly, impartially and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same, to the best of my judgment and abilities, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election.'

"The following shall be the form of the oath or affirmation to be taken by each clerk, viz: 'I (A. B.) do——that I will impartially and truly write down the name of each elector who shall vote at the ensuing election, which shall be given me in charge, and also the name of the township, ward or district, wherein such elector resides, and carefully and truly write down the number of votes that shall be given for each candidate at the election, as often as his name shall be read to me by the inspectors thereof, and in all things truly and faithfully perform my duty respecting the same to the best of my judgment and ability, and that I am not directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager on the result of this election.'

The qualified electors will take notice of the following act of Assembly, approved 12th day of March, 1866: AN ACT, Regulating the mode of voting at all elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person, or persons, embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability, imposed by said act of Congress, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot, or ballots.

Section 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive, or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot, or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he, or they, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall, for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

Section 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot, or ballots, any person, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall, for each offence, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

Section 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade, or advise, any person, or persons, deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot, or ballots, to the officers of any election, hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

JAMES R. KELLEY,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
DAVID FLEMING,

APPROVED—The fourth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO THE CONSERVATIVE VOTERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, October 20.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: It is a privilege and duty to address you on the eve of the great battle which we are to fight, and which is to decide whether the Government of this Republic is to remain four years more in the hands of the Radical party, or whether by an energetic, united, and last effort you will wrest the power from its grasp, and give to us, under a Democratic Conservative administration, a Government based upon principles of justice, economy, and constitutional liberty.

The issues of the present campaign are plain and self-evident. They appeal to the inteligence and patriotism of every voter in the most unmistakable terms. They have been ably discussed by distinguished orators and leaders of our party since the nomination of our candidates.

What the Democratic party intends to do, if placed in power by your suffrages, is to restore peace and union to our country; to heal the wounds and sufferings caused by the rebellion; to give to the people of the South the rights to which they are entitled under the Constitution, and by which alone we can bring back prosperity and quiet to that distracted section; to reduce materially our military and naval establishments, kept up now on an immense scale and at an enormous cost, to introduce in every department of Government the strictest economy, and to develope, by an equitable system of imposts and taxation, the growing resources of our country, and thus to place the Federal finances on a solid and stable footing and to pave the way to a gradual and safe return to specie payments. We are charged by the Radical party, the party of violence and usurpation, which for the last four years, to prolong its own existence, has set at nought the Constitution and and the fundamental principles of our Government, that we intend revolution and defiance of established laws. The accusation is unfounded and absurd; it cannot be entertained for a moment by any intelligent voter, who has even the most superficial knowledge of the history of his country.—The Democratic party can proudly point to every page of its record. It has never violated a single obligation of the fundamental compact by which these United States entered into the family of nations. Its watchword, in peace as in war, has been and will always be the Union, the Constitution, and the Laws. And no man nor any set of men, however high they might be placed by the suffrages of their fellow-citizens, can ever expect to receive the support of this great Conservative party in any revolutionary attempt against established laws. The ballot-box and the supreme will of the American people are the only means of redress to which we look.

Fellow Democrats! You are fighting for a good and righteous cause. You have for your leader a tried statesman; a patriot who stood by the Union in its darkest hour; a man equally beloved for the purity of his private character as honored for his public virtues.

Opposed to you are the men who have subverted the structure of our system of representative self-government, vindicated to the world by more than half a century of prosperity and greatness; the men who have increased our enormous debt by profligacy and corruption unparalleled; the men who in two successive Congresses have demonstrated their incompetency to diminish our burdens by economy or apportion them with equity; the men who have so distributed our burdens so as that they press with excessive weight upon the labor and industry of the country, marking rich men richer by making poor men poorer.

Opposed to you are the men who have denied for three years of peace, and will continue to deny until your votes arrest them, self-government to the people of ten States; the men who have taken away the power of our Chief Magistrate to insure a faithful execution of the laws, or to command the army and the navy of the United States; the men who did their worst to expel the President from the White House for obeying faithfully the behests of your supreme law; the men who, being conscious of their crimes, dreaded to have the Supreme Court declare their quality, and therefore abridged its jurisdiction and silenced its voice; the men who have usurped and are grasping and wielding powers not possessed to-day by any monarch among civilized nations.

Against these men and all their despotic purposes, which General Grant would be as powerless to hinder as he whom they elected four years ago has been; against these men, their crimes in the past, their fast accomplishing designs in the future, you are soon to make one final and determined onslaught.

Four years ago we failed to expel them from power, though we predicted then, as we now predict, their incompetency to give to the people peace; declaring then, as we now declare, the revolutionary purposes of their most active leaders, who rule their party, as they would rule the country, with a despotic sway. But these four years have justified our warning. Our worst predictions then are their enactments now. What we feared they have done. The revolution has made steady progress. Once more we call every patriot to join our ranks.

If the people will now rise in their majesty and might, they can save their institutions, and rebuild them. If they are supine and regardless of their sacred interests, so much in the last four years has been accomplished, and so much in the next four years may easily be accomplished, no obstacle then remaining, that the Revolution will become a fixed fact, the structure of our government will have been completely remodelled. It may be a government; still, it will no longer be your Representative Self-government.

For this final struggle then fellow-Democrats of the United States, let us invigorate every muscle and nerve every heart. The time is short. The foe is stubborn and desperate, for our victory would be the death blow to the Republican party. It could have been held togother by no other nomination. It cannot survive your successful assault. One victory is enough. Your triumph in November will finally reestablish the Union and the Constitution for another generation of men; it will restore peace and good order to the South, prosperity to the North, and a wise and frugal rule to both. The great prize is worthy your most strenuous endeavor.

Our ranks are unbroken; our courage is unabated. Once more to the breach, and this time Victory!

For the Democratic National Committee.

AUGUST BELMONT, Chairman.

IMPEACHMENT OF THE RADICAL PARTY.

Behold their Guilt!

We give below, from the Boston Courier, an enumeration of specific high crimes and misdemeanors, of which the Radical party, through its leaders and agents in Congress, stands arraigned before the bar of the country. It will be seen that the different counts embrace every act subversive of the principles of civil liberty, and equally derogatory to the rights of the people:

I. It has set aside the Constitution of the United States, the basis, pledge and security for Republican freedom.

II. It has practically abrogated State governments in the ten Southern States ranging them in military districts, and placing over those districts military commanders.

III. It has deprived every white man of his vote who would not aid in the Radical plan of "reconstruction."

IV. It has bestowed the power of suffrage upon every negro disposed to lend himself to that purpose.

V. It has substituted military commissions for the civil tribunals.

VI. It has thus taken away the constitutional right of trial by jury.

VII. It has deprived the people of the sacred right of the writ of habeas corpus.

VIII. It has prohibited free speech.

IX. It has broken and silenced a free press.

X. It has inflicted "cruel and unusual punishments"

XI. It has violated the right of the people "to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures."

XII. It has deprived the Executive of his constitutional, just and necessary powers, by means of which it was intended by the framers of the Constitution that this "co-ordinate branch of the government" should help to maintain a due balance of authority, for the common safety and welfare.

XIII. It has overawed that other co-ordinate branch of the government, the Judiciary, which was also intended to help maintain a due balance of authority, for the common safety and welfare—by unconstitutional and threatening legislation, so as to intimidate the Supreme Judicial tribunal and thus to prevent the declaration of a judgment ready to be pronounced, from which would have flowed the necessary legal consequences, that the whole series of reconstruction acts was "unconstitutional, revolutionary and utterly void."

XIV. It has required of the Southern States taxation without allowing them representation.

XV. It denies the right of voting at the coming election, to three of those States, for non-compliance with its unconstitutional, unjust and arbitrary demands.

XVI. In order to maintain this monstrous and iniquitous system of legislation, it has been compelled to keep up the public debt, instead of taking steady economical means for ite reduction and gradual extinction; and, for a period of peace almost as long as that of the war, has ground down the people by an ever increasing burden of extortionate taxation—the expenses of the government in this fourth year after the war, being more than six times as much as in the year before the war began,

Finally, apprehending that their scheme of "reconstruction" which meant always subjugation of the South to uphold Radical supremacy in the North, the agents of which were the military force, the freedmen's bureau and the "carpet-baggers," paid for these services out of the pockets of the people, had failed to cajole the majority of the negroes to its support—a bill was introduced into Congress, at its last session, provided for a large supply of arms to the blacks in the Southern States by which the armed minority might regulate the franchise of the white and black majority in the Radical interest. What dreadful scenes must have ensued, had this bill passed through a conflict of races, speedily involving the whole country in a civil war far more tremendous and horrible than the sectional war in which we have been engaged—the humane, the prudent and the patriotic would wish to banish from the imagination.

Such is, in part, the amply sufficient foundation for the arraignment of the Radical party. Every specification is a solid, indisputable fact. Of these "high crimes and misdemeanors," clearly subversive of the very principles of civil liberty, it is manifestly guilty. Upon such a specification no jury in Christendom would hesitate to pronounce sentence.

GEN. BLAIR AT HOME.

Important Speech from him on the proposed Change of Leadership.

ST. LOUIS, MO., October 16.—General Blair was serenaded to-night at his residence. The Democratic clubs, with torches, banners and music, were present, and a large crowd filled the streets.

After referring briefly to local matters, Gen. Blair said:

GENERAL BLAIR'S SPEECH.

I am the candidate of the Democratic party for a very distinguished position. I expect to be a candidate so long as they desire it; so long as I can avail to help the great cause which we all have at heart. My fellow-citizens, it will be no sacrifice to me, or rather it will be a work of pleasure to me, to surrender that position, whenever by so doing I can add one vote to the strength of the Democracy in this State or in any other of the States. I am ready to make any sacrifice, and so am I ready to go and do anything; to take upon my shoulders any burden, or lay down any that may have been conferred on me heretofore.

And this brings me to allude to that rumor in our midst to-day.

[A voice—That's what we want.]

It has been said here that both the candidates for the Presidency and for the Vice Presidency have signified their intention to decline in favor of some other candidates. All I nave to say is, that both candidates will always be ready to lay down their candidacy when it can no longer be of service to the Democratic party of the country. [Cheers.] If it should be thought now,—if it should be believed that by so doing we could add to the strength of the Democratic party, and give it better chances of victory. [A voice—"We want no Chase;" other voices, "No, no." That is for you to say. [Voices—"Well done," and cries of "Hurrah for Blair."] I want you to review it calmly, and without regard to the feelings of any man; because the feelings of individuals are nothing as compared with the great objects we have in view—of success and the restoration of our country. I do not intend to abandon the field, in one sense at least. I mean to bear my share of the battle; whether in the ranks or as an officer will depend on the wishes of the Democratic party.

Gen Blair then thanked the crowd and bade them good night.

In the opening part of his speech, the General announced that he was neither dismayed, terrified, nor discouraged, at the result of the recent election, which announcement was received with cheers.

THE RANK AND FILE.

The masses of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania, the rank and file, the great body of the party, the three hundred and twenty thousand firm and true men who voted for Boyle and Ent, are still in line. Nowhere can a straggler be seen. None have gone over to the enemy. All are true. Every man of them is more determined to stand by the grand old party of their choice than ever they were before. They feel proud of what they have accomplished. They know that the meagre majority which the Radicals have secured was not honestly won. They feel assured that they can carry the good old Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in any fair contest. And they are ready to renew the struggle on the third day of November. The devotion of the masses to the Democratic party is no weak attachment. They adhere to it with tenacity, because they recognize in it the defender of their rights and the protector of their interests. Their love for it is a sentiment as strong as the faith of the devotee in his religious belief.—They recognized it as the party of the people; the defender of the masses against the encroachments of unconstitutional and arbitrary power; the protection of the laborer against grasping and oppressive monopolies; the champion of poor against privileged classes. The Democratic party has always been ready to do vigorous battle for every right of each individual citizen, no matter who the assailant might be, or what his strength. It has thus endeared itself to the people, and they will not cease their exertions until it is enthroned in power, and enabled to give to the masses all the rights and blessings which they enjoyed in the happy and peaceful past.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

OUR DUTY.

In the hour of adversity, the patriot who is devoted to principles which he feels is right and just, never falters, but with renewed energy again hotly engages in the conflict with wrong. He battles not for office or spoils, but for the rightful administration of Goverument and the perpetuation of free institutions. Higher than all merely personal considerations does he esteem his country, and on the alter of patriotism he unhesitatingly sacrifices self. Of such men is the Democratic party composed, and for such there can be no lasting defeat. They may meet with temporary reverses, but it is only the coward and the faint-hearted who are not inspired by them to still more vigorous and persistent effort. Let us then close up our ranks and with unflinching determination prepare to renew our attack upon the enemies of the reserved rights of the States and of the rights of a free people.

The laboring men of the Nation are with us. The men who left their homes in foreign lands to enjoy the blessings of Constitutional government, are with us. The ablest and most patriotic men, who have heretofore acted with our opponents, are with us. We can, if we will, gain a victory next month in Pennsylvania. But how?

We answer by simply performing our duty; which is to poll every Democratic vote in the State at the approaching Presidential election, and to be like true men, superior to all the bribes, threats or short-lived successes of our corrupt, unscrupulous and revolutionary Radical opponents.—York Gazette.

A SCENE IN COURT.—An individual possessing unmistakable evidences of African extraction was arraigned for larceny. The judge, as of right, was dignified, but with severe presence, "Are you guilty or not?" he inquired. "Sar." Did you steal these clothes?" he inquired. "Golly, boss 'clar I never done it." "This man says you did." "He ain't nothin' but white trash." "And what are you?" "Me! Why don't you know me. I rid with you in de procession. I helped to tote you home when you got tired dat night—don't yer 'member me now?" There was the "suddenest" nol pros. in that darkey's case that judicial annals afford an example of. So much for the advantages of good society.—New Orleans Picayune, October 13.

A GOOD ONE.—As the Grant Legion were parading the other night in Mount Holly, a sweetheart of one of them threw a soft tomato out of the window at her "lovyer," as he was passing her domicile. It struck the youth in the mouth—he imagined himself the victim of Ku Klux malevolence. He threw himself into the arms of a comrade, exclaiming: "Kiss me for my mother." "Oh, tell mother that I perished for what I thought was right—comrades avenge my death." It was a long time before he could be undeceived, and for the same period it threw the gallant ranks into inextricable confusion.

Two Sucker girls, driving in a buggy on a plank road, were stopped and asked for toll. "How much is it?" "For a man and a horse" replied the gate-keeper, "the charge is fifty cents." "Well, then, get out of the way, for we are two gals and a mare. Get up, Jenny!" And away they went, leaving the man in mute astonishment.

RADICAL BILL OF FARE.—The following is the bill of fare of the banquet to which the Radicals invite the people:

No Meat.
Old Clothes.
The Almshouse.
No taxes for the Rich.
Gold for the Bondholders.
High taxes for the Poor.
Rags for the People.
Eternal War.
Low Wages.

WAYNE McVeigh, said in his speech, at the Radical meeting in Concert Hall, Philadelphia, a few nights since:

Democratic Nominations.

NATIONAL.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

ELECTORS:

It Can be Done.

The result of the recent elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska, has determined nothing except the fact that Seymour and Blair can be elected. Pennsylvania and Indiana can and will be carried by our candidates, if we poll the same number of votes for them cast for the Democratic tickets at the late election. The Radical carpet-baggers have gone home, the Radical corruption fund is very much reduced, Radical election officers have less power in Phildelphia, Harrisburg and other cities, and Radical candidates for Congress are not now engaged in personal efforts to swell their party vote. In Philadelphia alone we shall gain 5,000 votes. Let the country districts do as well and the State is ours. Indiana we have carried. On the Congressional vote of that State we have a clear majority, and Hendricks has not been defeated for Governor, but has been counted out, for the present, by the throwing out of the whole vote of Democratic districts. Indiana is ours. With Pennsylvania and Indiana, Seymour and Blair can and will obtain a majority in the electoral college. Let us look at the figures.

Seymour.		Grant.
California,	5	Maine,	7
Connecticut,	6	Massachusetts,	12
Delaware,	3	Michigan,	8
Indiana,	13	Minnesota,	4
Kentucky,	11	Nebraska	3
Maryland,	7	Rhode Island,	4
New Jersey,	7	Iowa,	8
New York,	33	Tennessee,	10
Oregon,	3	Vermont,	5
Pennsylvania,	26	Wisconsin,	8
North Carolina,	9	South Carolina,	6
Georgia,	9	Florida,	3
Alabama,	8	Louisiana,	7
Arkansas,	5	Illinois,	16
Nevada,	3	Kansas,	3
Missouri,	11	N. Hampshire,	5
W. Virginia	5	Ohio,	21
	164		130

This is exclusive of the States of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, which are entitled to representation in the electoral college as well as any of the other States, and which will give 23 additional votes for Seymour. This would make the count stand thus:

Seymour, 187 | Grant, 130.

It is not at all certain that the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Kansas will give their electoral votes to Grant, nor is it a fixed fact that South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana will do so. Should the last three disappoint the expectations of the Radicals, as there is a probability they will, Seymour can afford to lose the vote of Pennsylvania and Indiana, and hold a majority in the electoral college. In that case the result would be:

Seymour, 166 | Grant 153.

Hence, we say, Seymour can be elected.

TO WORK, THEN, AND ALL WILL YET BE WELL!

The Contest Desperate.

Our noble standard-bearer, the glorious Seymour, has thrown himself into the fore-front of the battle, and is now leading the Democratic hosts in person. He has just made a tour of the Western States, where he was received with unbounded joy and enthusiasm, and is now speaking in Pennsylvania to immense assemblages. The renewed vigor thus thrown into the canvass, will make the last struggle a most desperate one, and may yet incline victory to the Democratic side. We desire to deceive no one, when we say that it is our firm belief that if Horatio Seymour receives the same number of votes cast for the Democratic State Ticket in October, Pennsylvania will give him her electoral vote, and thus decide the Presidential contest.—Hence it is that we urge Democrats to get out the vote—THE FULL VOTE.—Let not a single Democrat remain at home on election day. In Middle Woodberry and some other districts in this county, our full vote was not polled at the last election. Will our Democratic friends, in every district in the county, see to it that every vote is polled this time? Let us see whether Bedford county cannot give 500 majority for Seymour.

"LET us have Peace," says Grant.—Did he ever tell the people when, and how?

THE CROWNING INFAMY!

Gen. Blair Disfranchised!

We had hoped that there was some honor left in the Radical party. But we forever dismissed the delusion from our mind when the telegraph informed us that a set of wheips in St. Louis, calling themselves men, had refused to register our candidate for the Vice Presidency on account of "disloyalty!" What! Gen. Frank P. Blair "disloyal?" Gen. Frank P. Blair no citizen? Is he "disloyal" because by one of those bold strokes which make his life famous in history, he nipped rebellion in the bud in Missouri and rescued that State from secession? Is he no citizen when he has served his country with honor in high positions in peace as well as war? No braver man than he ever drew a sword on the field of battle, and no truer man than he ever claimed the rights of a freeman in this broad land of ours. Yet a few miserable miscreants, who were plotting the destruction of their State while Gen. Blair was battling on many a sanguinary field, declare that he shall be deprived of the rights of the humblest citizen. Can impudence go any farther?

Democrats, this is not an insult to Gen. Blair alone, but it is one directed at the whole party who have chosen him as one of their standard bearers. It must be resented at the polls! Go to work, Democrats, and all others who cannot approve of such infamous conduct, and teach these infernal tricksters a lesson at the ballot box which they shall long remember. Let your battle cry be

The Rights of General Blair!

Voters, Remember

That on next Tuesday you will be called upon not to vote for Grant or Seymour, but by your ballot to endorse the platform of principles upon which these candidates have been placed. A vote for Grant is an endorsement of all the outrages perpetrated by the Radical Congress for the last three years.

It is a vote for a centralized government by a usurping Congress.

It declares for a Standing Army.

For a continuance of the Freedman's Bureau.

For Radical Reconstruction which is an acknowledged and expensive failure.

It declares that Bondholders shall not be taxed.

It is for oppressing the poor and exalting the rich.

It is for making the poorer classes sustain the heavy burden of taxes to keep up the government, while the rich with their bonds go scot free.

It declares against a white man's government and in favor of the supremacy of the negro.

In short, it is a vote for the complete subversion of our noble institutions as made by our fathers, and which have been the admiration of the civilized world for nearly a century.

Vote for PRINCIPLES, not MEN. Men are but the creatures of a moment, principles are eternal as the heavens. Remember this when you cast your ballots on Tuesday next.

ONCE MORE!

Freemen of Bedford County! You have one more opportunity to save your country from impending ruin. It is not a mere question of defeating the Radical party. That party will defeat itself within the next two years. Mark the prediction! But by that time, if Radicalism prevail, our form of government will have been changed, financial ruin will be upon us and anarchy will exist throughout the land. Then, even the most rampant "Republicans" of to-day, will wish they had taken the warning uttered by their political opponents. Then you will regret that you did not vote and work and strive for the election of a President whose qualities of statesmanship would have enabled him to guide the country safely through the troubles that threaten to destroy it. Alas! your remorse will be in vain; your repentance will come too late. NOW is the time to avert the impending danger. NOW is the hour in which to do the good work. Have you courage to do it?

Want to Steal a March!

The Radicals are quietly calculating on a light vote next Tuesday. They rest all hopes of carrying the state for Grant upon the discouragement of the Democrats. WHO ARE DISCOURAGED? Let cowards and cravens go to the rear! The Democracy of Bedford county fight on. FORWARD is our battle-cry. We can increase our numbers, whilst that of the enemy will certainly diminish on account of the exhaustion of their corruption fund and their confidence of success. Democrats, shall the Radicals be permitted to steal a march on us by our failing to get a full poll? No! Never! Up, guards, and at them!

DEMOCRATS! Do your whole duty at the polls on next Tuesday.

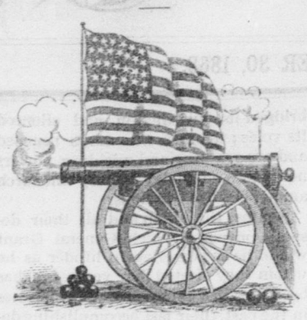
Glorious News!



A STATE DISENTHRALLED!

West Virginia Sends Greeting.

THE CARPET-BAGGERS COMPLETELY ROUTED!

Dinna ye hear the Slogan? The West Virginia boys plant the flag on the Enemy's Works!

The election for Governor and other State officers, members of Congress and Legislature, which took place on the 22nd inst., resulted in a complete triumph for the Democracy. When it is remembered that thousands were disfranchised by the carpet-baggers and adventuers who were determined to hold the power in the State, the result is still more gratifying. This victory secures us several Senators and Representatives in Congress. Rejoice, Democrats, for the end of the Radicals draweth nigh. Again we say, HURRAH!

FOR PRINCIPLE.

This is the time that "tries men's souls." There are no local candidates to lavish money upon partizans for working in their interest, there are no spoils to be promised by candidates for Congress; this contest, at least on the Democratic side, is one simply for principle. We shall see, now, who will prove the soundness of their faith. The man who will give his time and his money for the principles he professes to hold, is a pure man, an earnest man; he who labors for a cause only when he is paid, or expects to be paid, for so doing, is a mere hireling. Democrats, who are such from principle, will labor with increased zeal from this time until the election. Only those who look after the spoils will go to the rear.

Our Finances.

President Johnson has written a very lucid and unanswerable letter to Gen. Ewing on the Finances. We are sorry that we have not room to publish it this week. By it he shows the following facts:

The public expenditure from 1789 to 1861 was $1,700,000,000.

During the Rebellion the expenses were $3,000,000,000.

For the four years since the Rebellion $1,600,000,000.

It will be seen that Radicalism has cost this country IN EIGHT YEARS, $3,200,000,000 more than the WHOLE PREVIOUS EXPENSE of the GOVERNMENT!

No wonder the Radicals are howling, "LET US HAVE PEACE!"

500!

Democrats of Bedford county, you did nobly on the 15th. Never have you acquitted yourselves so honorably. You have shown to the State what our Democracy can do when she is aroused. Shall we do better on the 3rd? We can if we try. Shall the majority for Seymour be 500? We can make it so if we work like men determined to conquer. To work, then, and let us have another exhibition of your strength.

DEMOCRATS!

You did nobly at the last election. Bedford county is hailed all over the State as one of the true and unflinching Democratic counties. You can do as well, and we think, better, on next Tuesday. Give us A FULL TURN OUT.

Let every man be at his post. This may be the last opportunity you may ever have of voting for President. Turn out and exercise the rights of freemen while they are still yours.

Stand at the Polls.

Let there be a poll committe of Democrats for every election district, to stand at the window. Fight up the contest! Let no advantage be taken by our opponents! Let no illegal votes be polled! Guard the ballot-box! Watch all suspicious election officers! We were beaten by fraud at the last election. Let us see whether we cannot prevent a repetition of it.

COUNTERFEITS!

Look out for bogus tickets on Tuesday. Examine every one before you deposit it, and be sure that you are voting the full Democratic Electoral ticket. In several districts at the October election, bogus tickets were given out by unsuspected parties, and our majority reduced thereby. Let this not be repeated.

The Brewing Storm.

REIGN OF TERROR IN THE SOUTH!

THE NEGROES ARMING!

What Does It Mean!

The Rising in Louisiana--Negroes Arming Throughout the State--Families Fleeing for Safety.

NEW ORLEANS, October 19.—The City of Jefferson, adjoining New Orleans, has been considerably excited for several days over a police imbroglio. The parish has recently been included in the lately created Metropolitan Police District. A force was appointed and sent to take charge of that place. The existing authorities refused to surrender the city property, intending to have the matter tested in the courts. The Metropolitan police made several unsuccessful attempts to take possession by force, making no appeal to the courts. They finally established a station of their own, and placed policemen on beats. A number of the latter, together with the Metropolitan Captain of Police, were arrested but released on bond. Last night, at midnight a notorious negro named Sandy Packer was arrested, having a sword and revolver in his possession. He accounted for them by saying he was an officer of the Metropolitan force and had been guarding a church during the night. Several negroes were arrested for parading the streets armed with Enfield rifles, United States cartridge boxes, and ammunition. Rumors are afloat that the Metropolitan Police intend to take forcible possession of the police stationhouses This the existing authorities will resist. The Jefferson City authorities who were elected at a recent election, are willing to submit to a judicial decision but refuse to surrender otherwise. The negroes were congregating to-day at Brashear City, La., where it is said one of the men who was assassinated at Franklin, Saturday night is to be buried. Arrivals from that section report apprehension of disturbance, and the families of the citizens are being sent to places of safety. The citizens themselves are remaining.

A Louisiana Newspaper Office Sacked.

LOUISIANA, October 19.—A despatch received here to-day from Franklin, La., states that the office of the Attakapas Register, published in Franklin, St. Mary's parish, was sacked last night. The press was destroyed and the type scattered. The editor and printers left for New Orleans this morning. The despatch says the citizens of Franklin and surrounding country are doing all in their power to preserve order. The negroes are making very bold threats, but have not made any attempt to carry them into execution. The town and parish are quiet at present.

Military Preparations in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 19.—Governor Holden has suspended the order for organizing a detailed militia. General Miles has distributed the Fortieth United States Regiment as follows: Two companies in Raleigh, two in Goldsboro, one in Weldon, one in Plymouth, one in Fayetteville, one in Charlotte, one in Greensboro—all colored troops. One company of white troops, belonging to a heavy artillery regiment and armed as infantry, arrived here from Fortress Monroe on Saturday.

WASHINGTON, October 19.—The arms recently captured on the Mississippi River, were, it is known to the War Department, purchased by the Governor of Arkansas and United States Senator McDonald. They expected the Legislature would appropriate the necessary amount of money to buy the arms from them. The Governor's telegram to the Secretary of War that he is satisfied that armed resistance to the law is contemplated, occasions much comment among prominent officials, who say they cannot understand why he should entertain such fears as he himself states that the arms were thrown overboard by the captors.

No Change!

The Radicals have been circulating the report that the Democrats contemplated a change in their candidates for President and Vice President.

There is not one word of truth in it. It was gotten up for effect by the opposition. The Democracy have no cause to desert either their candidates or their platform upon which they stand, for both are bound to triumph! The American people will not, cannot endorse the monstrosities of the Radical party! Up Democrats! and strike for the liberties of the people!

Prize Banner!

Democrats of Bedford county, read the offer of a prize banner from the State Committee, to the county giving the largest per centage of increase over the October vote. Shall Bedford county carry off the prize? It is worth contending for. To work, then, and let us run up the majority for Seymour and Blair!

Save Your Country.

Every Democrat, every Conservative in the State, will vote to save his country on the third of November.

If there are any just, liberal-minded, patriotic Republicans who wish to do so and want to know how, we will tell them:

Vote for HORATIO SEYMOUR for President and FRANCIS P. BLAIR for Vice-President.

In that way, and only in that way can you save your country.

If the Radicals succeed;

If Grant and Colfax be elected;

Good-bye! to PEACE, to PROSPERITY, to LIBERTY.

Stirring Address.

Read the address of the National Democratic Committe,e on the outside of to day's paper. It has the ring of the true metal, and shows that victory is still within our grasp, if we but do our whole duty on the 3d of November.

To work then, Democrats!

Show the enemy that our ranks are unbroken!

Our Courage is unabated!

Once more to the breach, and this time for VICTORY!

ROORBACKS.

The Radicals are exaggerating their majority in this State in order to effect the election next Tuesday. Don't believe them, but go to the polls and show them how we can carry the State for Seymour. A full vote will do it sure. Look out for all kinds of roorback on election day. Heed them not.

Forward.

A united determined effort will bring Bedford County, up to 500 Democratic majority! Forward, brothers, forward, and shame to him who lags in the rear.

ANDERSONVILLE.—Out of 44,832 Union soldiers confined in the Andersonville prison, 22,303 died from sickness and starvation in one year. Think of it. And yet we are asked to sustain the inhuman wretches who did this work, by voting for Seymour and Blair. —Bloody Run Press.

"We thank thee for that word." Gov. Joe Brown, who was the founder of that prison pen, and who looked complacently on while the cruelties of which the Radicals are continually howling were being practiced—yes, the veritable Joe who prayed that the "rebels might fill hell so full of Yankees that their feet might stick through the grates," was in the Chicago Convention at the head of a negro delegation, was lionized there by these same whelps who are forever rattling the skeletons of the Andersonville dead about the ears of the people of the North, in order to get up a little cheap sympathy for their candidate and their cause. Joe Brown was for Grant in Chicago, and he is for Grant now, in Georgia. But it is not wonderful that Joe Brown is for Grant, or that he is so heartily welcomed by the Radicals. For thus wrote Ulysses to Butler: "Send no more men in exchange for our sick prisoners in the enemy's hands. Every man released becomes an active soldier against us." Brown was but carrying out the wishes of Grant at Andersonville, as the latter expressed them to Butler, for he too, with Grant and Stanton, was opposed to exchange. Whilst the emaciated forms of the brave men who had stood by Grant and saved him from defeat and shame, were languishing in prison, this heartless General refused to have them exchanged. If any of these poor fellows dared stretch their thin hands across the dead line for a drink of water to cool their fevered lips, the guards would shoot them down by way of amusement. All this Joe Brown saw from his cozy seat in the gubernatorial chair of Georgia. A little later in history we find this man Brown in the Chicago Convention, a leading spirit in it, while the guards who acted so fiendishly are pardoned by a Radical Congress. Does not this look like approval of the conduct of Brown and his guards? Brown was but carrying out the feelings of the parties who were opposed to exchange. He was sending the "Yankees" beyond that line from which there could be no exchange. It is too late in the day for the Radicals to "go back" on Joe Brown. Did he not bring to Chicago a band of ignorant reconstructed Africans from the South to help nominate Grant, and give color to that heterogeneous body? Did not he and the other reconstructed rebels support Grant then, and are they not doing it ardently now? The small beer politicians cannot drive him off by citing to the horrors of Andersonville.—He and his pardoned guards, together with the Press, all support the great "no policy" candidate to-day. Noble candidate! worthy supporters!

"LET us have Peace," say the Radicals, while they are sending Artillery and Enfield Rifles to the Negroes of the South to kill off the white people.

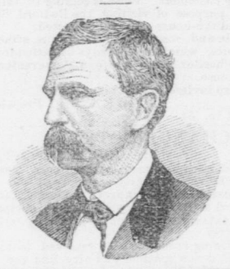
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL NOMINEES.



Seymour and Blair!

The Last Rally of the Campaign.

Col. J. H. Filler and B. F. Meyers will address the people of Bedford and vicinity in front of the Bedford Hotel on MONDAY EVENING, Nov. 2.

Let there be a good turnout. Rally, once again.

Only One in a Hundred.

According to the official returns of the election held on the 13th inst., in this State, a change of one in every hundred of the Radical vote will give the Democrats a majority in Pennsylvania of 5,000. Where is the Democrat who will not turn out and try to make this one vote in his district. A full turnout of the Democratic vote will carry this state for Seymour beyond the shadow of a doubt.

A PRIZE BANNER FROM THE STATE TO COST $500.

I am directed by the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, to offer to the county, giving in November, the largest per centage of increase over its Democratic vote in Octorber, a banner, with appropriate devices, costing $500.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Chairman.

INDIGNATION MEETING.—The city fathers have determined to grade Juliana street. To this a number of citizens objected as being a useless expenditure. In order to bring this opposition to a focus, a meeting of the anti-graders was called at the Court House on Saturday evening. A number of speeches were made, pro and con, and the graders and the anti-graders took strong grounds why the ground should, and why it should not be removed from the street aforesaid. The evening was spent, and fair Juliana was not de-graded, but a committee was announced to wait on the fathers aforesaid, and demand of them, in the name of the indignant citizens assembled as aforesaid, why these things are thusly. Imagine the city fathers exclaiming, "Can these things be and overcome us like a summer cloud,
Without our special wonder?"

SALE OF OIL STOCK.—On last Tuesday 26,081 shares of the Stump Islands Oil Company were sold publicly at the Court House. They were sold according to the provisions of the act incorporating said company, for the former owners of the stock who had neglected or refused to pay an assessment of two cents per share made by the officers of the company. All the stock, with two exceptions, was bought for the assessment. The following were the purchases, with the amount of shares each bought:

Dr. G. W. Anderson, 17,064 shares; O. E. Shannon, 5,562 shars, Simon Naus, 1500 shares, J. A. Henderson, 850 shares, Daniel Border, 400 shares, Lewis Saupp, 255 shares, S. L. Russell, 250 shares, J. W. Dickerson, 200 shares.

THE 6 and 10 cent prints at Oster's are selling off rapidly. They are just the thing for comforts and cheap dresses.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.—We have neglected to notice that at our last court, A. D. Koontz, Esq., was admitted to the practice of the law in the several courts of this county. Mr. Koontz read law in the office of G. H. Spang, Esq., and we understand passed a very creditable examination.

THE NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Interesting details of the Corner Stone laying.—The following interesting matter concerning the laying of the corner stone of the new Catholic church, which took place on the 22d instant, has been furnished us for our readers:

As many are desirous of knowing what objects were deposited in the cavity of the corner stone, laid last Thursday, with so much solemnity, in the new Catholic Church now begun in this place, the following notice is intended to satisfy all inquirers.

After the Bishop had addressed the immense crowd that had assembled to witness the solemn occasion, he invoked a blessing and deposited in the primary, or chief angular stone, a zinc box, containing

1. The two Catholic organs, or papers, of the Arch diocese and the Pittsburgh diocese, viz: "The Catholic Mirror," and "The Pittsburgh Catholic."

2. The two county papers, ("Gazette" and "Inquirer.")

3. Exemplars of the currency from a dollar to a cent, kindly furnished by a citizen of this place.

4. There was also deposited in the hollow part of the corner stone a Latin document, of which the following is a literal translation:

"On the 22d of October, in the year of our Lord, 1868, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Domenec, blessed and laid this corner stone of St. Thomas' Church in presence of the Presbyters Heyden, Nolan, Smith, O'Shea and Byrne, surrounded by a vast crowd of people. The reigning Pope at this time being Pius the Ninth.

The Archbishop of the Ecclesiastical Province being the illustrious Martin Spalding.

The Bishop of this Diocese of Pittsburgh, being Michael Domenec, distinguished for piety and zeal.

The Pastor of the Church, the Rev. Thomas Heyden.

The President of the United States being Andrew Johnson.

The Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, John W. Geary.

The Supreme Judge of this Judicial district being Alexander King.

The Chief Burgess of this town Valentine Steckman.

The Architect of this Church being John Davidson.

The chief mason, John Henderson."

The above contains an account of all the articles deposited in the aforesaid Corner Stone. L. M. N.

NEW Fall styles of Hats and Caps. The largest and cheapest assortment in town, just received at Oster's.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On last Thursday as a party of men were threshing with a machine at the barn of Mr. Jacob Feightner in Harrison township, some of the machinery broke and flew into the face of Mr. F. cutting his nose in two, and mangling his lips and chin in a terrible manner. One of his eyes was also injured to such an extent that it is feared he will lose it. These accidents are becoming rather too frequent.

IMPORTANT ADVICE TO VOTERS.—On the third day of November the voters of Bedford county will be called upon to discharge a sacred duty they owe to themselves. There are two parties in the contest, both rallying around the Flag of their Country. One of these parties is doomed to defeat, and with that defeat there will be a great depression of spirits, superinducing a loss of appetite and an entire derangement of the digestive organs, or animal functions. The unfortunate in the contest, aforesaid, will find a wholesome panacea in Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic that will speedily restore the tone of their stomachs and enable them to resume business. These preparations are for sale by Druggists and dealers in Medicines everywhere.

IF YOU want to buy a dress, a pair of shoes, gloves, or any thing else, go to G. R. Oster & Co. They have beyond question the largest and cheapest stock in Bedford.

THE Radical platform says that Reconstruction is a complete success. Their papers give the lie to that expression every time they retail any of the manufactured "Horrors of Rebeldom." Vide Bedford Inquirer.

ELECT Grant and place the devilish fanatics in power, and instead of healing the wounds of the nation, you open them anew.

J. M. SHOEMAKER has just received and is opening a splendid stock of goods. Call and see him, buy the latest novelties of the season, and you will go away delighted.

THE report of the proceedings of the Bedford County Teachers' Institute came too late for the outside of this week's paper. It was impossible to have it in the inside. We will publish it next week.

IN the boudoir and the dressing-room one perfume reigns supreme. PHALON'S "FLOR DE MAYO," the new perfume for the handkerchief, has no rival in any home where tast presides. Sold by all druggists. oct23w2.

PROGRESS.—Columbus sailed to the American coast in a four hundred ton ship, and first landed upon the island of St. Domingo. Last week a vessel from St. Domingo unloaded in New York over four hundred tons of St. Croix Rum for P. H. Drake & Co., of that city. This is but a few weeks' supply of this article which these gentlemen use in the manufacture of the celebrated Plantation Bitters. We are informed by an exchange that Messrs. Drake & Co. have not advertised a dollar for a year, but the sales of this article continue at the former enormous figure. In 1864, the receipts of the Plantation Bitters were equal to those of the New York & New Haven Railroad.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

PATRIOTS! Heed your country's call on Tuesday!

Do those who doubt whether it is wise to place money in a Life Insurance Company ever consider how wonderfully economical the investment is? Take the ordinary life plan of insurance: where the party insured pays his policy yearly. A man of thirty may be insured for one thousand dollars—at the annual cost of $16,75, or a little over four cents a day. In other words a working man has only to drink one glass of beer less every morning to secure his family from want. A man of fifty need only pay $36 65, or about ten cents a day, while a man of sixty may be insured for $63 20, or a little more than seventeen cents a day. No man, however limited his circumstances, can refuse to put away such a small part of his income for the benefit of those dear to him, especially when we have a company in existence like the National Life Insurance Company, whose advertisement we print elsewhere. This Company has in its management men of national reputation for honor and sagacity. At its head we have such men as Jay Cooke, whose name alone is an assurance that every promise made by the Company will be redeemed.

CLOTHING.—If you want to buy a good suit of clothes go to R. W. Berkstresser & Co's. clothing emporium.—Also, hats, caps, cassimeres, muslins, and gents' furnishing, in great variety.

ANY person having a file of the "Bedford Gazette" from April 1, 1864 to May 1, 1866, can dispose of it by applying to this office.

THE Radicals lost a vote by hanging Wirz, for no doubt, if he were living, he, like Joe Brown, would be an enthusiastic supporter of Grant.

Radical watchwords: "Knock down that Copperhead;" "Kick that traitor, yonder;" "Egg that procession;" "Mob that printing office," "Throw a brick at that rebel." "Let us have peace."

ST. LOUIS and IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY'S Seven per cent. first Mortgage Bonds. February and August Coupons. The earnings of the completed road to Pilot Knob are now more than the interest on the entire mortgage. The proceeds of these bonds are adding to the security every day. Over $8,000,000 have been spent on the property, and not over $2,000,000 of bonds issued thus far. The constantly increasing traffic of carrying ore, with the prospect of controling all the travel from St. Louis to the Southern States, insures an enormous revenue. The Directors own 8-10 of the stock for investment, and are interested to enrich the property as well as to economize its expenses.
THOS. ALLEN, President, St. Louis, Mo.

We, the undersigned, cordially recommend these seven per cent. mortgage bonds, of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad, as a good security. The revenue of the road will be large, and the administration of the affairs of the Company is in capable and experienced hands, and is entitled to the greatest confidence of the public.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Billious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

OUR NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK
never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished.
